

Privacy Notice – Governors and Volunteers

Under GDPR individuals have a right to be informed about how the college uses any personal data that we hold about them. We comply with this right by providing ‘privacy notices’ (sometimes called ‘fair processing notices’) to individuals where we are processing their personal data.

This privacy notice explains how we collect, store and use personal data about individuals working with The City of Leicester College in a voluntary capacity, including Governors.

We, The City of Leicester College, are the ‘data controller’ for the purposes of data protection law. This means that we are responsible for deciding how we hold and use personal information about you.

Our Data Protection Officer is Anne Gregory (see ‘Contact us’ below for contact details).

What personal data do we use

The types of data The City of Leicester College may collect, use, store and share (where appropriate) about you includes, but is not restricted to:

- Contact details
- References
- Evidence of qualifications
- Employment details
- Information about business and pecuniary interests

We may also collect, store and use information about you that falls into “special categories” of more sensitive personal data. This may include information about (where applicable):

- Race, ethnicity, religious beliefs, sexual orientation and political opinions
- Disability and access requirements

When in college, we may also collect, use and store:

- Information relating to the visit, e.g. your name, arrival and departure time, car number plate
- Photographs for identification purposes
- CCTV images captured in college
- Information about any access arrangements that may be required

Why we collect and use this information

The purpose of processing this data is to support The City of Leicester College to:

- Establish and maintain effective governance
- Meet statutory obligations for publishing and sharing Governors details
- Facilitate safe recruitment, as part of our safeguarding obligations towards pupils
- Undertake equalities monitoring
- Ensure that appropriate access arrangements can be provided for volunteers who require them

What allows us to use this information

We only collect and use personal information about you when the law allows us to. Most commonly, we use it where we need to:

- Comply with a legal obligation
- Carry out a task in the public interest

Less commonly, we may also use personal information about you where:

- You have given us consent to use it in a certain way
- We need to protect your vital interests (or someone else's interests)
- We have legitimate interests in processing the data

Where you have provided us with consent to use your data, you may withdraw this consent at any time. We will make this clear when requesting your consent, and explain how you go about withdrawing consent if you wish to do so.

Some of the reasons listed above for collecting and using personal information about you overlap, and there may be several grounds which justify our use of your data.

Collecting this information

Some of the information we collect from you is mandatory, and in some cases it is optional.

Whenever we seek to collect personal information from you, we make it clear whether providing it is mandatory or optional. If it is mandatory, we will explain the possible consequences of not complying.

We will only collect the data that we need in order to fulfil our purposes, which are set out above.

Storing your data

Personal data is stored in accordance with our data protection policy.

We maintain records that store personal information about all volunteers. The information contained in this file is kept secure and is only used for purposes directly relevant to your work with the The City of Leicester College.

When your relationship with the college has ended, we will retain and dispose of your personal information in accordance with our our data retention schedule, as guided by 'The Information and Records Management Society's toolkit for schools', and our statutory obligations.

We have put in place appropriate security measures to prevent your personal information from being accidentally lost, used or accessed in an unauthorised way, altered or disclosed.

We will dispose of your personal data securely when we no longer need it.

Data sharing

We do not share information about suppliers or their representatives, employees or agents without consent unless the law and our policies allow us to do so.

Where it is legally required, or necessary (and it complies with data protection law), we may share your personal information with:

- Government departments or agencies – to meet our legal obligations to share information about governors/trustees
- Our local authority – to meet our legal obligations to share certain information with it, such as details of governors
- Suppliers and service providers – to enable them to provide the service we have contracted them for, such as governor/trustee support
- Professional advisers and consultants
- Employment and recruitment agencies
- Police forces, courts
- Professional bodies

Transferring data internationally

Where we share personal data to a country or territory that is based outside the European Economic Area, we will protect your data in accordance with data protection law.

Requesting access to your personal data

How to access personal information we hold about you

Under data protection legislation, individuals have the right to request access to information about them that we hold. To make a request for your personal information contact our Data Protection Officer, see 'Contact Us' details below.

Your other rights regarding your data

Under data protection law, individuals have certain rights regarding how their personal data is used and kept safe. You have the right to:

- Object to the use of your personal data if it would cause, or is causing, damage or distress
- Prevent your data being used to send direct marketing
- Object to the use of your personal data for decisions being taken by automated means (by a computer or machine, rather than by a person)
- In certain circumstances, have inaccurate personal data corrected, deleted or destroyed, or restrict processing
- Claim compensation for damages caused by a breach of the data protection regulations

We will process your data in accordance with these rights. If you have any concerns please contact our Data Protection Officer, see 'Contact Us' details below.

If you have a concern about the way we are collecting or using your personal data, we request that you raise your concern with us in the first instance. If you are then unhappy with our response, you can contact the Information Commissioner's Office:
